What is the brightest star tonight Yahoo Clever

There are two exceptionally bright objects in the night sky at the moment, but neither of them is a star. If you're looking southwest and the sun has only set in the last couple of hours, then you'll see Venus, which is at the brightest it has been for a considerable time, and is far brighter than anything else in the sky other than the sun or moon. If you're looking southeast, or if it's
